Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your interest in The Most Worshipful King Solomon Grand Lodge, State of Alabama, Scottish Rite, The Honorable Peter Alston, Jr. Scholarship Award Program.

The Honorable Peter Alston, Jr. Scholarship Award Program will be awarding Scholarships to a number of high school seniors. The scholarship award may be used for any college related expenses such as tuition fees, books and housing. Applicants must meet all eligibility requirements and deadlines to qualify. Individuals applying for the scholarship must forward a completed application to the address below. Application packet must be postmarked no later than September 15, 2020. All applicants will be notified by October 15, 2020 of Scholarship Committee's decision.

Mail the completed application to:

The Most Worshipful King Solomon Grand Lodge
Scholarship Committee
1800 LaSalle Street
Mobile, AL 36606

Before completing this application, read the scholarship guidelines which specify the criteria for both eligibility and selection. Since the member of the Scholarship Committee have not met you and only have this application by which to evaluate you carefully consider the content and completeness of your responses to the information being sought.

Additional pages of narrative or supporting documentation may be added to any section. This can include newspaper clipping, photos, letter of recommendations from people within your school and/or community, and other materials which will give committee a better insight about you, your school, and community activities. Any materials you send will not be returned unless you specify what particular items you wish returned, and include an appropriate, self-addressed, stamped envelope.

A broad based criterion is used in the selection process. The principle criteria are service to school and community with special emphasis upon leadership roles in these areas. The Scholarship Committee is looking for students who exhibit potential to be future leaders in the community. An applicant's academic record, communication skills, and need for financial assistance are also carefully considered in the selection process.
